We thank the Florida Legislature for funding the Hometown Hero Housing Program at $100 million. This will go a long way toward ensuring that our state's dedicated first responders, nurses, teachers, and their families can fulfill the dream of homeownership and live in the communities where they serve.

Our hometown heroes deserve to live in the communities where they serve – but far too many struggle to afford a home in today’s housing market. Today the Florida Legislature put homeownership within reach for many of our heroes by funding the Hometown Heroes Housing Program at $100 million dollars. Thank you for prioritizing housing for these dedicated Floridians!
